We had a light run after the Labor Day Holiday. Packer cows and bulls were steady. Calves and yearlings were steady. Good quality calves are in high demand. We look for a 500-600 head run next week.
If we can be of any service, please give us a call.

We had a lighter run of sheep and goats this week. The market was steady on all classes. The light lambs topped out at 3.05 and the heavier lambs saw some demand hanging between 2.25 to 2.85. We did not have enough stocker nannies or ewes to really test the market. The billies were steady to some softer with the market ranging from 1.85 to 2.2.

We appreciate your continued support.
